

a coin – to toss a coin (heads and tails)
 change – loose change – spare change to have the change
 a note / a banknote (UK) or a bill (US) a penny (sg) – pence (pl.) UK 50p cents – a dime = 10 cents – a quarter = 25 cents
 the currency the price the value

CASHMONEY

the cost the amount of money the sum
 a credit card a bank card
 a card terminal contactless payment e-wallet mobile payment
 online payment a purchase peer-to-peer (P2P) payment to pay for something

 to charge something to an account
 to charge so much
 to be legal tender

 costly expensive dear valuable cheap low-cost low-price
 economical

BANKING

a bank a branch
 an account a loan
 a cheque (UK)/ a check (US)
 a life-insurance
 a share (UK), a stock (US)
 a broker a robbery
 an ATM (cash dispenser)
 cash withdrawal
 APMs = alternative payment methods to lend money ≠ to borrow money

 to be overdrawn
 to withdraw money
 to save money
 to invest to insure
 to take out an insurance policy

PROFITS AND LOSSES

assets (+) ≠ liabilities (-)
 sound management
 turnover the growth rate
 creditors bankruptcy
 profit margin rake-off
 profit sharing

 to settle an account
 to be in the red to owe money
 to lose money to run into debt to pay back to refund
 to own property
 to earn money
 to speculate on / to gamble on
 to rig the market

 profitable
 lucrative

 money rolls in!

PITFALLS/ PROBLEMS

the law of supply and demand
 a tariff
 a trade agreement
 a crash
 a boom a recovery
 a recession a depression
 runaway inflation
 situations wanted ≠ situations vacant the standard of living purchasing power the unemployed
 the dole (to be on the dole)
 unemployment benefits

 to hire, to engage ≠ to lay off, to dismiss, to fire
 to be thrown out of work

 phishing scams
 digital fraud
 cybercrime/ cyber-attacks
 data breaches

